

Freeze All IVF Cycle

With Fertility Specialist Fertility tests requested Get pathology testing and semen analysis done (we need the results back before commencing treatment)

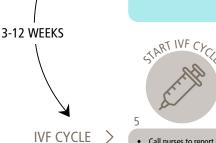

online portal

- the nurses (around 30 minutes) Fertility Specialist Complete preliminary education through our
- Complete and return IVF consents through our online portal
- finalises treatment plan after reviewing pathology results

A comprehensive education session with

Contact nurses to order medications for pickup or delivery

- Call nurses to report Day One of menstrual cycle (first day of period)
- Start medication as per
- Transvaginal scan around Day 10, 11 or 12 of cycle to track follicles
- More than one scan may Trigger time given - 36 hours before time of egg

- Egg collection a 30 minute procedure in our
- Sperm preparation
- Rest for remainder of the
- Scientists perform IVF or
- Fertilisation update the day after egg collection
- Embryo freeze update Day 5 or 6 post egg

- FET CYCLE > Frozen Embryo Transfer (FET) education
 - Return FET consents
 - Call clinic to report Day One of menstrual cycle
 - Take medication as per
- Transvaginal scan around Day 10, 11 or 12 of cycle to monitor the lining of the uterus
- Embryologists thaw embryos
- Embryo update after the

You can resume your day as normal and return to

- Transvaginal scan 2 weeks after pregnancy
- Potential follow up scan around 8 weeks then referred to regular GP/Obstetrician for further pregnancy

It can take anywhere from 9-20 weeks from your first consult to a pregnancy result - depending on how long the blood tests take, and the timing of your period.

PREGNANCY MONITORING

2-4 WEEKS

4 WFFKS

• Pregnancy blood test around Day 10, 11, 12 or 13 following FET If positive, repeat 2 days

GENdoc61_Full Service Freeze All_0_11052023.pdf